

Sub-Saharan Africa Realities

Almost 50,000 people are born daily.

17 of the top 20 countries with the highest birth rates in the world are in Sub-Saharan Africa.

Over 20,000 people die daily.

The Population is 1,041,851,677

It is expected to double in the next 25 years.

The population is growing more than 3 times faster than the world's population.

2.51% vs 0.82%

Over 75% of all new IDPs in the world are here.

The median age is 17.5 years old.

We do not have personnel in 17 of the 43 countries which make up the Sub-Saharan African Affinity.

Social media is a rapidly growing movement that provides unique opportunities for M-Task impact through digital engagement.

There are over 400 UUPGs.

There are 70 UUPGs with no known churches, believers or access to the gospel.

By 2050, more than 1 in 10 people in the world will live in a Sub-Saharan African city.

1 in 4 Christians of the world live here.

1 in 6 people in the world are African.